

Civic Education, Religious Diversity, & Democracy

Workshop and Panel Discussion with Dr. Charles Haynes

Saturday, April 13, 8:30AM-2:30 PM
Residence Dining Hall at Fresno State

Charles Haynes, from the First Amendment Center, is the nation's preeminent expert on First Amendment and religious issues in schools. For more info: www.firstamendmentcenter.org

8:30-11:30: Morning session will focus on education, religious diversity, and the First Amendment, with discussion of Tony Blair's Face to Faith curriculum project

11:30-12:30: Lunch

12:30-2:30: "Civic Education and Democracy in the 21st Century" Panel featuring:

- Charles Haynes, First Amendment Center
- Lori Grace, Doctoral Student at Fresno State and Principal at Hoover High School
- Dr. John Minkler, Program Director of the Academy for Civic and Entrepreneurial Leadership
- Deborah Brown, Madera County Teacher of the Year
- Moderated by Dr. Andrew Fiala, Director of the Ethics Center at Fresno State

To confirm attendance (for planning purposes) email Dr. Susan Schlievert at susansc@csufresno.edu and indicate whether you will attend the morning, afternoon, or both sessions.

Further information: Andrew Fiala, afiala@csufresno.edu

